

Examination Dates and Deadlines

Arizona Jurisprudence Examination

The dates and deadlines for the jurisprudence exam are listed below. Your application must be complete by the deadline provided in order for you to sit for the related exam. At this point, a “complete application” means that the Board has received your completed and notarized application forms, fingerprint card, photographs, fees, official final college transcripts, NBCE scores and verifications from all other states in which you have held a license. If you disclosed a disciplinary action, arrest or conviction, documentation regarding the sanction, arrest or conviction will be required before the Board will schedule you to sit for the exam.

The Board will provide the jurisprudence exam on the following dates:
